

ThetaHealing Japan April class Q&A

March 8th, 2018

Being an instructor

1. I have taken basic and advanced instructors certification but I have fear and have not yet have taken action as an instructor.
2. I am planning to join the soulmate instructors seminar this time. But I have not yet released the block on meeting my soulmate. Is it too careless for me to attend the soulmate Instructors seminar?
3. Hello! Thank you for the free webinar. It may be a basic question, when will be able to recieve the instructors material after being certified as a instructor? Will the material be sent to me via email?
4. What are the things that I need to be prepared as a theta healing healer?

Seminars in General

1. Will it be possible to participate seminars with a three year old child?
2. What is the minimum number of people needed to do a (Basic & advanced) seminar?
3. I'm not sure if this question is appropriate but is the dig deeper instructors seminar fun to take?
4. In what way will I be able to take class. (The question does not make sense so it's an assumption)
5. Where will you be doing game of life instructors? What other classes are planned to do in Japan?

Stibal Family

1. How did you feel when your mother, Vianna has started healing or started to teach classes? Did you have to clear anything in order for you to teach the instructors seminar?

Recertification

1. By taking Dig Deepe or Soulmate this time in Tokyo, will classes like basic, advanced or manifesting instructors certification taken after 2015 be recertified?
2. Thank you for all you have done for us. Please let us know the ways we can recertify basic and advanced instructor by this day Feb 2018.

For example. If you take basic and advanced instructors in the year 2015 and the dig deeper in the year 2016. 1) by what year and What instructor seminar needs to be taken and what classes will be decertified. And 2) how many days of what instructor seminar do we need to participate as an assistant. And 3) if there is any letter that has announced this information can you please tell me which day it was sent. I do not understand English that much and may have missed the newsletter that was sent to me. And if it is possible, from now on it would be nice if any important updated information to be announced in Japanese and can be searched via google. I will not be able to attend to this webinar since I have work this day but your answer will be appreciated. Naoko Nakamura

Soulmate

1. I have a question on soulmates.
 - 1) I assume that there were difficult times during the process of being together but how did you keep trust with each other.
 - 2) how did you, Joshua see the process of your mother meeting a soulmate as a son?
2. Are there a difference between divine partner and divine partner soul mate?
Will it be easy to recognize the difference?

Technique 1

1. When I do theta healing there are times that I think in my head and feel the connection (with creator?) being weak. I would like to be connected but when I start listening to the problems of the client my connection starts to feel weak. Please give me good advice.
2. The shifts and changes of theta healing in these ten years
3. I learned this a while ago and want to practice again with taking my time. When and in what way do you feel that you have connected to the higher self.
4. I think that the earths vibration is shifting and digging is getting lighter and lighter. Will there be a time when we will not need digging?
5. I can not be sure when I reach the 7th plane. How can I be sure? I can not see my divine timing. How can I be sure that I did see it?

Technique 2

6. The things that were in a good flow is not flowing the way since we started this year. Relationships with a couple of soulmates that I was connected with for several years are going into the direction that is not serving good. Can you please advise me if the clearing points for this issue.
7. If I get an inspiration one day and comes back to me over and over every day and I can imagine that in more details, will that inspiration come true? Could you please tell me one example from real life?
8. What changes have you seen in your self since you stated theta healing?
9. Scanning the body I have issues with. I just can't seem to look inside the body. What blocks?
10. How to let go?
